

$45 Million Why efileSalesTax.com Could Be Your Best New Year's Resolution for Sales & Use Tax e-Filing

(NEWBURY PARK, Calif. - (Jan. 22, 2009) - In fiscal year 2008, one of the largest states in the country collected about $45 million in penalties for late filing of sales and use tax returns. There are countless reasons why taxpayers are filing their sales and use tax returns late, and just as many reasons why their calculations are wrong.

2009 is a new year, and nearly everyone is optimistic about getting off to the best possible start. For those of you looking to make a change, we recommend taking a good, long, look at efileSalesTax.com.

efileSalesTax.com offers fast, easy and secure Sales and Use Tax e-Filing software. It checks and validates your data and warns you of any issues so you can avoid errors and penalties, and electronically files the return securely into the state's computer system.

Avoid late filings by taking advantage of the efileSalesTax.com "Reminder" feature, which sends automated reminder emails and text messages. efileSalesTax.com not only helps you stay on top of when to file your sales tax return, it also allows tax professionals to setup reminders for all their clients.

Whether you file monthly, quarterly, or annually, the best financial footing for the year ahead is to start "Reminding" yourself when it is time to file.

File early, but don't pay early. Let's say your payment is due on the 20th. With efileSalesTax.com, you can file early but "post-date" the tax payment until later in the month. Setup an efileSalesTax.com reminder early in the month and get the filing done, but set a payment date of the 20th so you're paying the state in a timely fashion.
