

California Encourages e-Filing of Sales Tax Schedules B & C

NEWBURY PARK, Calif. – (January 28, 2009) – Nearly 90% of all California businesses that collect sales tax are now eligible to e-file, including business that are required to file Schedules B & C. What are you waiting for? Now is the best possible time to start taking advantage of electronic filing, and efileSalesTax.com wants to help you get that job done.

efileSalesTax.com provides a quick, simple, and accurate e-filing system for businesses required to file California sales & use tax returns.

For those of you required to file Schedule C, you'll appreciate our re-design that automatically imports your location data from the BOE's computer to the form. That means one less thing to type in.

In addition, efileSalesTax.com automatically validates the Schedule B and C totals against the tax form verifying that they match, which is a California requirement.

Benefits of using efileSalesTax.com include:

- It's fast and easy – e-File your sales tax return in minutes
- Eliminate errors with automatic calculations and validations
- QuickBooks import option
- Low cost – only $6.95 per filing
- Free email reminders when it's time to file
- Free technical support
- 4 ½ out of 5 stars – CPA Technology Advisor Magazine

About efileSalesTax.com

Electronic Sales and Use Tax, Inc. was established in August 2001, and its online e-filing system www.efileSalesTax.com went live in April 2002. The software supports sales tax filing for California, Florida and Illinois. For more information on pricing or a demo, please visit the web site at www.efileSalesTax.com or call Ramon at (877) 584-2309.

*Schedule B tax forms are used for “Detailed Allocation by County of 1% Combined State and Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax.”

*Schedule C tax forms are used for “Detailed Allocation by Suboutlet of Combined State and Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax.”